

General Information - Co-Applicant 1Name:*Institution:*Department:*Discipline:*Rank Title:*I will be able to attend the workshops starting May 28 - 31, 2009 and starting September 10 - 13, 2009.*Teaching and Advising Experience - Co-Applicant 1*Title*Semester / Year*Type*Level*Enrollment*List titles of recently completed PhD dissertations that you have supervised.*Student Name*Title*Date*List current PhD Dissertations that you supervise.*Student Name*Title*Date*Describe any workshops or seminars related to dissertation proposal development and/or methods that you facilitate or have facilitated in the past:

General Information - Co-Applicant 2

Name:
Institution:
Department:
Discipline:
Rank Title:

I will be able to attend the workshops starting May 21 - 31, 2009 starting September 10 - 13, 2009.

Teaching and Advising Experience - Co-Applicant 2

Title	Semester / Year Enrollment	Type	Level

List titles of recently completed PhD dissertations that you have supervised.

Student Name	Title	Date

List current PhD Dissertations that you supervise.

Student Name	Title	Date

Describe any workshops or seminars related to dissertation proposal development and/or methods that you facilitate or have facilitated in the past:

Research FieldTitle*Research Field Description

Describe in detail the importance of the Research Field in relation to existing disciplinary practices, methodologies, and research problems.

Workshops

The Spring DPDF workshop intends to help students prepare research questions and pilot studies for their summer predissertation research. The Fall DPDF workshop intends to help students draft cogent and fundable proposals. Throughout the fellowship period the DPDF program aims to encourage the construction of a research field. What specific activities, exercises, and assignments, fulfilling the program goals, would you propose for these two workshops?

Submission InformationDigitally signed and submitted by:*at